The general rules for entry fees and refunds. Each tournament's prospectus states the exact dates.

1. Fee tiers

Early entries pay 80% of the regular fee; late entries in the last two weeks pay 125%. Every event after the first costs a reduced flat fee, and juniors of 18 and under pay half where the prospectus says so.

2. Withdrawing

Until the withdrawal deadline the fee is refunded in full less a 5 GEL administration fee. Until one hour before the draw, 50% is refunded. After the draw there is no refund, except 80% on a medical certificate sent within seven days of the tournament.

3. When you get everything back

If your doubles entry finds no partner by the entry deadline, if you stay on the reserve list, or if the organizer cancels the tournament, the fee is refunded in full. The federation levy is never refunded.

4. How refunds are paid

Refunds go back to the original payment method within 14 days. Quote your entry reference in every message.
